THE theme of the 1955 Tabulae is based on the old Aesop's fable of the lion and the mouse, in which the lion, as an act of kindness, refrains from killing the mouse, whom he believes worthless. In turn, the mouse, christened Mortimer, repays this favor by rescuing the lion when the latter becomes entangled in a hunter's net. As a reward to his faithful little friend, Leo gives him a guided tour of his home, LT. Henceforth unfolds the account of their jaunt through LT's hallowed halls.

LAE

The editors and staff of the 1955 TABULAE take great pleasure in dedicating this book to a teacher and counselor who has been a guiding light to the Class of 1955 for the past four years . . .

MR. JOHN DAVIS

"THIS," philosophizes Leo, "is the reward for successful completion of four years of trial and travail. Its presentation at a special ceremony marks the passing of another group into the world beyond the environs of the classroom. After receiving diplomas, these young people are no longer mighty seniors leading the school, but humble voyagers commencing their journey on the sea of life . . ."

Interrupts practical Mortimer, "Does it say where to apply for an executive position?"

DIPLOMA

AUDREY ACKERMANN — People who misspell her last name are Aud's pet peeve. Often heard saying, "That's life," she especially enjoys Friday nights with "the girls." Next year: college, maybe Iowa State.

Office Aide 2, 3; GAA 1

PATRICIA ADAMS — Eating and trying to stay thin at the same time was the favorite pastime of this attractive girl. Especially enjoying Spanish, sports, and "Street Scene," Pat intends to go into social work after Beloit.

GAA 1, 2, 4; Corral Show 3; Thespians 3 — Secretary 4; Dramatics Club 2, 3, 4; Office Aide 3

NANCY ADLER — Coming here after a busy three years at South Shore, pert Nancy found LT's activities to her taste. Social work will come after four years at Grinnell.

Girls' Club Council 4; GAA 4

SHIRLEY ALDERDYCE — Though friendly Shirl's interests largely center around art, she also enjoys horseback riding and working. Using her artistic ability, Shirley hopes to become a commercial artist.

GAA 1, 2; Twirlers 1, 2; Corral Show 1

CAROLE ALEXANDER — Often seen driving around in her white Ford, this cute gal claims "Blue Moon," eating shrimp, and watching basketball games as favorites. After graduation comes the University of Iowa.

Nurse's Aide 3, 4; Home Ec Club 2, 3, 4 — Committee Chairman and Historian; Representative Assembly 4; Corral Show 2, 3, 4; GAA 1, 2, 3, 4; Pep Club 3, 4; Tri-Hi-Y 1

KAY WIRTH — Kay plans for a future as a buyer after home ec at Iowa or Michigan State. She sang in a sextette for three years and likes the expression "the wind is bad!"

Corral Show, GAA, Representative Assembly, Operetta, Latin Club, Choir, Treasurer of Pep Club

DON WOEHRLE — Well-liked "Dingles" will always be remembered for his sense of humor. Sports, math, and women appeal to him. He hopes to be successful after college.

Wrestling, Representative Assembly, Corral Show, Operetta, Golf, Latin Club

JOYCE WOERTHWEIN — She answers to "Jo," sews, bakes, sketches, and does water colors. She is a Grinnell prospect with a major in occupational or physical therapy.

GAA, OEO, Representative Assembly, Debate, Cicero Club, Latin Club

BARBARA WOLF — Active Barb was one of our best-liked girls. Sleeping and "Harlem Nocturne" appeal to "Wolfie." A secretarial career will come after DePauw.

Class Secretary 2; GAA 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Board 3 — Program Chairman 4; Corral Show 3, 4; Leadership 4; Spanish Club 4

DON WOOD — Science and magic fascinate active "Woody." This friendly senior likes sleeping, tennis, and "Harlem Nocturne." Purdue next.

Conservation Club 2, 3 — treasurer 4; French Club 4; Latin Club 2; Rifle Club 1; Record Club 3; Tennis 2, 3

RONALD WOODS — "Woody" would like to be an atomic engineer doing some hunting and fishing for fun. He's sharp in math and plays a flute.

Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Rifle Club

Last, and best of all, everyone had a "tremendous" time at the prom, held at the Sheraton Hotel in Chicago.

JOSEPH WUDI — "Lucky" loves "Mood Indigo," Dixie records, steak, and psychology. Joe, who came from Duluth, wants to take a business and commerce course at Miami in Florida.

Baseball, Basketball, Football

GORDON YOUNG — Mathematics rates high with Gordy, who also enjoys watching a close basketball game. He'll go to a midwestern college after LT.

Freshman Board, Boys' Club Board, Baseball, Cross Country, Senior Advisory Board, Intramural Basketball

ANNE YOUNG — Anne is a natural for a major in English and a minor in music at Lawrence College. At LT she wrote short stories and poems and played the piano.

Lion Staff, Mu Tau, French Club, Corral Show, Operetta, GAA, Choir, Tri-Hi-Y

GORDON YOUNGER — Gordon, whose favorite school subjects are science and history, plans to become a technical salesman after he attends a liberal arts college, which will probably be Grinnell.

Spanish Club, Stamp Club

NANCY JOAN ZALENAS — Pretty "Jo's" main likes include horseback riding, psychology, and cars. Her favorite song is "Chapel in the Moonlight," and Nancy can often be heard saying, "You know it." Next: a job as an airline stewardess.

SENIOR ADVISORY BOARD

The Senior Advisory Board is the governing body of the Senior class. It is composed of representatives elected from each American history class, and representatives from the Lion, Tabulae, Corral, Student Council, and the class officers. The class president presides over the meetings. This group directs and carries out the Senior Class business. From its membership most of the committee chairmen and members are chosen. The biggest job of the Senior Advisory Board is the sale of Christmas cards. The money earned from the Christmas card sale is used to finance the class party, prom, Tabulae, class gift and other class activities.

SWEETHEART

MIDWAY along in their trek through the buildings, our host and guest pause for an on-the-spot survey of one of LT's teaching staff endeavoring to educate a bunch of lowly underclassmen. Trying hard not to wince at wrong answers, Mort soberly questions his well-informed guide about the vital statistics of the machinery — the administration, faculty, special services, cooks, and custodians — necessary for running LT. Then, after one last glance, lion and mouse resume their tour of inspection.

AIDES

FINALLY, the pair arrives at State and Madison, and Mort is properly impressed by the marquee-like bulletin board full of proverbs, newspaper clippings, announcements of coming sports events, and other miscellanies. Such local color as A and B days, Mugawasagama, and Oomaoomanookanookaahpuahpuop are unfamiliar to him, however, and Leo has to supply some explanations. Together they make the rounds of all the activities from Representative Assembly to chorus line rehearsals.

STUDENT COUNCIL

LT's Student Government Association has again been responsible for supporting the progress which has been very evident this past year. Among the highlights were the six new student guidance discussion periods, an increase to twenty-three from the former seven honor study halls, and the founding of a cafeteria board under the direction of Mr. Edie.

Responsible for actually carrying out the work, the Student Council Committees can be quite pleased with the results. The Participation Committee organized the Council elections held in February for the first time. The Social Committee managed all the Council social affairs and did a commendable job on Homecoming. The Citizenship Committee concerned itself mainly with reminding the student about his duties as an LT citizen and provided us with a parking lot system set up to register cars by a tagging system.

The Business Management Committee saw to it that Council received financial support through food sales, which turned in a good profit. The School Spirit Committee was responsible for the assemblies and the posters around school publicizing the games. This group worked especially hard on the Homecoming Assembly. The publicity of Council affairs was undertaken by the members of the Publicity Committee, while the Student Guidance workers had the big tasks of organizing an efficient tutoring system, editing the GOLD AND BLUE GUIDE, holding the annual newcomers' party, and finally, seeing that Career Day was the success it was.

Those who made this dependable student government possible can look back with pride on a year of accomplishment.

GIRLS' CLUB

Girls' Club started the year's activities with the Big and Little Sister Party, "Snow White and the Seventeen Dwarfs," followed by the Introductory Tea, "This Is Your Life."

The Girls' Club interest groups functioned throughout the year to provide opportunities for all girls at LT to participate in various activities such as; collecting for school welfare drives, solving personality and grooming problems, learning to dance, visiting well-known spots in Chicago, making jewelry, and practicing chorus lines.

Other activities which Girls' Club helped to make successful this year were the Father-Daughter Banquet, The Christmas Sing, The Girls' Club Dance, "Sweetheart Swing," and Bow Day.

This year the Girls' Club Council was formed as an advisory body for Girls' Club. This council is composed of a girl from each guidance group. These girls publicize the Girls' Club activities in their respective groups and serve as co-chairmen in the main activities and interest groups.

BOYS' CLUB

This year, under the leadership of its capable officers and board members, Boys' Club was able to gain participation for a larger number of boys than usual. One of Boys' Club's main goals was to encourage the participation of all its members. Many varied activities were planned and carried out so that every boy could find some activity which suited his interests. The Father and Son night and Boys' Club dance were among these activities. The nine hundred student directories which were published by the club this year were practically a sell-out.

CORRAL

Although separate from LT extra-curricular activities, the Corral (Lyons Township Youths' Organization, Inc.) forms an important part of LT life. To its 1400 members it provides a place to gather with friends after games and for dances. Governing the Corral is in the hands of a student board of four officers, two seniors, four juniors, four sophomores, and two freshmen elected by members each year and a fifteen-member adult board elected by the students for two-year terms. Joint meetings are held once a month. Mr. Bert Kraus fills the position of director.

The Corral operates on a $7,000-$8,000 yearly budget, used mainly for meeting expenses, paying the director's salary, financing activities, making major repairs, and increasing an improvement fund.

Officers the first semester were Jim Doud, president; Bill Althen, vice-president; Bobbie Bauer, secretary; and Mary Dando, treasurer. Second semester, Bill Althen became president with Bob Dutton vice-president and the girls continuing in their respective posts.

This year's board achieved a major goal with the purchase of land for the new Corral. Long under discussion, the property is located near the site of the proposed LT addition.

Bi-monthly combos with such themes as "Fabulous Fosdick," "Snowbound," "Penthouse Serenade," and "Oomaoomanookanookaahpuahpuap," composed as usual an integral part of the Corral's program. Record dances, introduced this year, won many adherents. Other activities included the Hallowe'en Party, the record auction, Four Star night introducing the candidates for the '55-'56 board, the annual election, and the Eighth Grade Party.

The biggest event on the Corral's calendar was, of course, the Corral Show, "All for One," a modern adaptation of The Three Muskateers. Organized and presented with the aid of Messrs. Dan Schuffman and Kenny Baker of television station WBKB, and Corral junior directors Hank McKinney, Bobbie Bauer, Martha Ferguson, and Kathie Rhoads, the production received much acclaim and made its customary financial success.

THE TABULAE

After suffering a severe setback in the fall flood, the Tabulae editors Ernie Schmidt, Melissa Benbow, and Diana Johns, with the help of our able staff, finally caught up with the deadlines at spring vacation time. Making the task more difficult was the fact that this year the book has twelve extra pages, due to the fact that the senior class has the largest number ever graduating.

The Editors

Many of the pictures in the 1955 Tabulae are contributions of our fine photographers Walt Foote, Jerry Ellersdorfer, Laurie Johnson, and Dick Hoff. Bob Thayer, Jerry Olson, Ray Gass, Eleanor Magnuson, Janet Moore, Meg Greene, Anne Medlock, Julia Meek, and Jean Kavanaugh helped the editors set up the layout and makeup of the book in addition to the writing they did. Our very industrious artists were Caroline Hawes and Jan Pickett.

Chosen expressly to do senior writeups this year, Ron Allan, Steve Sandels, Tom Kerry, Harry Davis, Jerry Schwanbeck, Anne Toogood, Deanna Olds, Susan Stevens, Judy Prichard, and Bev Euler confirmed the faith of the editors in this new staff plan. The girls who were not actually on the staff but who helped immensely in composing our book were our typists: Mary Gervase, Diana Giles, Janice Sandburg, Marilyn Schoof, and Bobbie Johnson. Miss Ruth Keizer, as usual, has been the guiding light for the staff with her excellent advice and helpful ideas.

We all hope everyone enjoys the 1955 Tabulae as much as we have enjoyed working on it.

THE LION

As usual the Lion has had another successful year winning many awards. It obtained the Gallup award for one of the top fifty high school newspapers. The International Honor Society award and the NSPA All-American award were two more of its achievements.

Besides winning awards the staff also managed to have a wonderful time at conventions. The first of these was the National Scholastic Press Association convention in Minneapolis, Minnesota, during the last week of August. Then all during the school year they attended the Chicago area meetings and contests.

Under the help and guidance of Miss Kathryn Keefe, this busy staff consisted of Norma Easter, Lauretta Forst and Joyce Ray as co-editors; Linda DuPlan and Judy Hallett as feature editors; and Walt Foote and Roberta Rogers as sports editors.

Working along with the editors were Dave Vandaveer as advertising manager, Bruce Mitchell as business manager, Elaine McKenzie as exchange manager, Barb Henning and Martha Turney as circulation managers, Delight Jones as headline editor, Dick Hoff as photographer, and Anne Young as press bureau manager. These people are assisted by the many reporters from the junior class.

DEBATE

With a varsity team consisting of affirmatives Delight Jones, Mike Sovereign, Jim Doyle, and Dave Findlay, and negatives Ken Gentle, Alan Krause, Jerry Ellersdorfer, and Bob James, along with the sub-varsity and beginning squads, LT's debate program got underway with the Northwestern University Debate Workshop and the sixty-three-team LT Tournament, largest in the state for team participation. Ably coached by Mr. Ivan Rehn, LT's debaters used as a basis for their arguments the following statement: Resolved: That the United States should adopt a policy of free trade among all nations friendly to the United States.

The debaters gained much satisfaction by winning first place in the Metropolitan Debate Union, a series of fifteen negative and fifteen affirmative debates among high schools in Illinois and Indiana. This accomplishment returned the traveling trophy to LT.

After a year filled with numerous appearances and tournaments, the debate season ended in May with the awarding of pins to those debaters meeting qualifications.

MU TAU

"To promote music appreciation and participation" is the purpose of Mu Tau, which has an increased membership this year. Mu Tau activities have included such programs as a "Teenager's Musical Weekend," showing the different ways music enters a teenager's daily life, the annual caroling party at Christmas, and "Master Behind the Melody," in which members told about and performed the works of various composers. The year was high-lighted by "Freshman Follies," a talent show put on by freshman members. Other big events were the Homecoming float and Parade of Melodies booth, "Three Blind Mice."

LATIN CLUB

This year Latin Club, made up of Latin II students, had three big meetings. The first one, held in October, consisted of games, panels, and refreshments. The freshmen were invited to the meeting in December, when a skit was presented. After this came singing of Christmas carols in Latin. The third meeting, in March, was a Roman-style banquet, at which a few freshmen served as slaves. The board, two members from each class, and our sponsors, Miss Thompson and Mr. Hammerlund, all helped to make Latin Club a success this year.

FRENCH CLUB

By having had films and speakers, "Le Cercle Francais" has tried to help the members better understand the French people and their way of life. They also had a Christmas party and a dinner in the spring. Some of the other activities included having a float in the Homecoming parade and a "telegramme" booth at Parade of Melodies.

GERMAN CLUB

German Club members have had a wonderful year working, first of all, on the dachshund for the Homecoming float with the theme of "We'll Hound Downers" and then on the ball toss for Parade of Melodies. The first meeting of the year featured two speakers who had traveled in Germany; the second was a Christmas party; then came a German dinner at Berghofs in Chicago, and last of all a trip to a German movie theater.

SPANISH CLUB

After the election of officers in September, Spanish Club followed through with several interesting and well-planned meetings during the year. The homecoming float, bearing the legend "They Won't Cact-us Asleep," won honorable mention. Christmas occasioned the annual Piñata Party, featuring the breaking of pinatas and the singing of carols in Spanish. Initiating new members made an amusing program, because the new admittants were required to wear signs in Spanish to school all day, declaring themselves stupid, fat, hungry, lazy, etc., and at the meeting each had to perform a Spanish skit solo or in a group. Spanish Club finished the year with its annual Mexican dinner, held this year at México Lindo, a Mexican restaurant in Chicago. There, the socios (members) experienced the novelty of sampling native dishes in a place with "atmosphere."

CONSERVATION CLUB

Among Conservation Club's projects this year were tree planting in Bemis Woods and fighting legislation for building a dam in Dinosaur National Park. The club also collected evidence of pollution in the Des Plaines River and made a relief map of Illinois. This year, too, the club joined the Isaak Walton League and the Nature Conservatory, two national organizations, and made two field trips, one of which was to White Pines State Park.

PEP CLUB

To promote better sportsmanship among the spectators at LT's sports events is Pep Club's purpose. This year the club promoted the sale of pom-poms and megaphones and organized the giant "L" on the gym stage at the basketball games. The pep sessions on Friday afternoons in the auditorium and publicity for the games were also accomplishments of this group.

FNA

FNA is a club for girls contemplating a career in nursing and desiring to know more about this profession. Their programs this year have included a field trip to the Hinsdale Sanitarium, a visit with the Hinsdale FNA Club, and a Christmas project of painting coffee tins, filling them with cookies, and presenting them to the servicemen. On the lighter side, two enjoyable activities were building a Homecoming float and having a silhouette booth at Parade of Melodies.

FTA

The E. G. Cooley chapter of the national FTA was organized four years ago for those students interested in the profession of teaching. At the monthly meetings such things as field trips, movies, and speakers were enjoyed by all. The club also entertained and visited other FTA chapters of nearby schools. Another interesting activity was the presentation of a panel on the plans and organization of FTA on WTAQ.

VERGIL CLUB

To its members Vergil Club is a bridge between ancient and modern civilization. It brings the knowledge of the Classics to the modern student and enriches our modern life.

Vergil Club sold candy at the Parade of Melodies with the theme "Three Coins in the Fountain." The members of the club visited Chicago for Latin Weekend and ended the year with their annual picnic.

CHESS AND CHECKERS CLUB

The Chess and Checkers Club, which was organized last year, has become well-situated in the social life of LT. Anyone interested in chess is welcome to join the club whether he is a beginner or an accomplished player. The highlight of the year is a chess tournament in which all the members participate.

RADIO CLUB

During the past year, Radio Club has continued its series of code and theory classes, intended to lead interested students to their amateur licenses. Other accomplishments included the purchase of a station receiver to replace outmoded war surplus equipment, and the federal licensing of the transmitter under the call letters W9LGH. Plans are now being made to start a Hi-Fi group within the club's structure.

STAMP AND COIN CLUB

The main purposes of Stamp and Coin Club are to increase the collection of all the members by trading among themselves and stimulate an interest in the collecting and trading of stamps and coins. Besides the regular weekly meetings, Stamp and Coin Club also held its annual picnic this year.

This year has seen two very important changes in Dramatics Club. A new studio theater has been added and behind this a new make-up studio. Two student matinees have been given this year in the studio theater, "Thank You Doctor," directed by Miss Ackerman and "Finger of God," directed by Mr. Bacon. The main purpose of the club is to allow aspiring actors and actresses to pursue their interest.

THESPIANS

The Thespian Society, a national high school dramatics association, is in its infancy at LT, Troop 1368 having received its charter last spring. So far, 35 members have been initiated. This group presented "Maid of France" at the Christmas assembly and "Happy Journey" at a matinee performance.

HONOR STUDY HALLS

During the second year that LT has had honor study halls, there have been three such study halls operating each period all day and six extra ones during the noon hour. The purpose of these is to provide a place for students to study and practice self-discipline, along with the chance to show and practice leadership as a supervisor. We feel that our aims have been successfully carried out this past year.

LT ON THE AIR

Every Saturday at 1:15 P. M. on WTAQ, LT on the Air demonstrates some aspect of high school life for the enjoyment of both students and the listening public. Throughout the year radio plays and school news written and edited by students as well as various publicity productions were presented. Initiated this year was the monthly poll to determine LT's top tune. Programs of jazz and commentary were also among the highlights.

LT on the Air provides a valuable service to the various school activities through radio publicity. Junior and Senior class plays, JC capers, operetta, and the Corral show were among the organizations to benefit.

Run as a regular class rather than as a club, LT on the Air looks forward to many fine years of community service.

HI-Y

Promoting an atmosphere of good fellowship for LT boys, the Hi-Y group participated in many activities this year. The homecoming float, dances, picnic and interesting programs highlighted the combined activities with Tri-Hi-Y. Hi-Y earned money in the spring by working and contributing a fifth of the earnings to the betterment and development of Hi-Y clubs all over the world.

YMCA vocational work and football teams in LT's past were among the interesting programs presented.

TRI-HI-Y

This year's series of programs at Tri-Hi-Y opened with a scavenger hunt in September. In October, there was a hayride and a guest speaker, Miss Lutz, who told of her experiences in the Navy. At Christmas, the members had a potluck and a grab bag. On March 14, they held a fashion show at the La Grange Congregational Church, staged by Mr. Stevens of Jo-Be's. But it wasn't all play. On Christmas Eve, the girls lived up to their theme of creating high standards of Christian character by a trip to Hines Hospital to carol for the vets. In April the club held a chocolate candy sale to raise funds for its annual donation to the World Service Fund.

WRITERS' CLUB

Writers' Club is composed of the students interested in literary composition. Each member contributed a manuscript for Pen 'n' Inklings, plus other literary pieces. Writers' Club entered Parade of Melodies with "Stormy Weather" as the theme for its booth. Last but not least the club presented the products of the efforts of its club members, Pen 'n' Inklings.

QUILL AND SCROLL

Quill and Scroll, international honorary society for high school journalists, has chapters in countries all over the world including Hawaii, Canada, and England. The LT chapter holds an impressive candlelight initiation ceremony twice a year. Any junior or senior in the upper third of his class having 85 published inches and a piece of his work approved by the organization's national secretary is eligible to join.

Quill and Scroll attempts to better journalistic standards by sponsoring contests for individuals and school papers. Elaine McKenzie was one of three winners in a national contest in which she submitted an interview of Fran Allison. Noel Crouter won honorable mention for an extemporaneous editorial in another national contest.

RIFLE CLUB

Weekly shooting for National Rifle Association awards, supplemented by club matches which were held approximately every six weeks, highlighted Rifle Club's activities this year. The club has over one hundred members, making it one of the largest clubs in school. This organization gives its members a chance to use guns safely, at the same time encouraging marksmanship and keen competition. In addition to the fun derived from competition, members learn the proper handling and care of a rifle.

TWIRLERS

Twirlers provides an excellent opportunity for anyone interested in twirling to develop and make use of the skill. In addition to entertaining the crowds between halves at the basketball and football games, the twirlers also led the Homecoming parade and the Pet Parade.

JAM SESSION

Jam Session, the most-heard-from group in LT, entertained at such activities as assemblies, basketball games, the Sock Hop, and the Shoe Shuffle. Under the guidance of Mr. Harold Hilgendorf and President Paul Bowman, Jam Session's look as well as its sound improved. With increased interest in the club and the majority of members returning, the swing harmony of Jam Session can be expected to continue sounding through the corridors of the Vaughan Building.

A A K

At their monthly meetings, the members of All Arts Klub found that very appealing programs had been planned. Included were lectures and demonstrations covering the different phases of the art field. Helpful suggestions and aids for improvement were also mentioned. Proud of their float's recognition in the Homecoming Parade, the girls made clay models this spring to sell next year in their booth at "Parade of Melodies," which, for the first time, they did not enter this year.

RED CROSS COUNCIL

The main purpose of Red Cross Council is to sponsor the annual Red Cross drive in March. However, this is not the full extent of this service club's work. Making stockings and cards for needy children at Christmas was one of the council's projects. This year a Steering Committee composed of representatives from all of LT's departments was set up to aid in projects and to furnish necessary publicity. To finance the council, shamrocks were sold on Saint Patrick's Day.

CAMERA CLUB

Camera Club has been active for quite a long time around LT. Walt Foote presides over the meetings, which feature talks by various professionals, slides, shooting sessions, and demonstrations of camera types. Various projects include exhibiting the 70 winning pictures of the National Photographic Awards; showing the members' pictures in the Spring Salon; and keeping the darkroom, which they use almost exclusively, supplied.

AUTO CLUB

Now in its second year, Auto Club is one of the newer interest groups of Boys' Club. The club's purpose is to show the members how to repair and keep their cars in running order. They study new developments in automotive styling and designs. Their programs include movies and lectures procured from automobile manufacturers.

HOME EC CLUB

Patterned after the national Future Homemakers of America, Home Ec Club is opened to all girls who have taken or are taking a course in Home Ec. They opened the year in October with their annual hot dog roast. In November the new officers were installed. For the Christmas meeting the girls made doll clothes which were taken to the children in the Women's and Children's Hospital. In January they had a speaker, Miss Blackledge, who had experience as a waitress in Stouffer's Restaurant, and in February they also had a speaker on Japan, Mr. Schwass. Another big event was the tour through Midway Airport and dinner in the "Cloud Room."

ARCHERY CLUB

Archery Club is one of the new clubs formed during the past year. The purpose of Archery Club is to provide instruction, equipment, and a shooting place for all boys who are interested in shooting as a group at school. The members spent the winter months making tripods and purchasing equipment and, as soon as the weather became warm enough, began regular after-school shooting.

BOWLERS' CLUB

The bowling league comprised twelve teams having five players on each team. Mr. Bennett was the league supervisor. This league met every Thursday from November to March. Forty-eight games were played, the championship team being that of Len Gabreleski, Grant Maves, George DePasse, Denny Ferrantino, and Gene Hill. The five members of the winning team were awarded trophies.

Front Row: P. Gray, H. Feather, D. Corning, R. Marsh, D. Cunningham, K. Hahn, M. Marwitz, K. Allard, D. Hilton, D. Gothard, C. Krubl, J. Davies. Row 2: K. Gittings, W. Giller, P. Hayes, C. AUDIO CLUB

Audio Club was started for those students who are interested in high fidelity.

The purpose of the club is to encourage members to obtain a greater knowledge in the use of audio components and to help beginners in hi fi to gain more knowledge about the subject. Building and setting up various equipment are further purposes of the Audio Club.

HISTORY CLUB

History Club, newly organized this year, has sixteen active members, who have talks on history and have held panel discussions.

This is a service club, helping the teachers prepare material for their classes and classifying Indian relics as a start for an LTHS museum.

The club is open to anyone in school who is seriously interested in history—and is willing to work!

THE OPERETTA

H. M. S. PINAFORE, or The Lass That Loved a Sailor

One of the most popular and best known Gilbert and Sullivan operettas, H. M. S. PINAFORE was given March 25 and 26. The plot involves the old problem of marriage between different social levels. Ralph Rackstraw, our hero, is a member of the crew. His love for Josephine, the Captain's daughter, is of no avail because "the lass is much above his station." Buttercup loves Captain Corcoran, but he can't lower himself to marrying her. The story is complicated more by the entrance of Sir Joseph Porter, who is seeking the hand of Josephine. Ralph talks Josephine into eloping with him, but they are caught in the act by Captain Corcoran, who, in a fit of wrath, swears. For this he is confined to his cabin by Sir Joseph. Ralph is ordered to be thrown into irons because of his planned elopement with Josephine. About this time Buttercup confesses that when Captain Corcoran and Ralph were babies, she mixed them up and that Ralph is the Captain and the Captain is Ralph. This solves the problem because Ralph, now being the Captain, can marry Josephine, and the Captain, being a member of the crew, can marry Buttercup. Sir Joseph resigns himself to marrying his Cousin Hebe.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

MR. BARRY'S ETCHINGS

The thoroughly enjoyable production, Mr. Barry's Etchings, was presented on the nights of February 3 and 5 to appreciative audiences. With Miss Joan Akerman's direction and Mr. David Thompson's ability to create sets, the quality of performance reached a high point.

Judson Barry (Bill Thuma), deciding that the expression of Grant on the fifty dollar bill was too serious, righted it by using his etching talents to fashion a smiling Grant; and, being engrossed with his work, printed a whole chestful of bills, which his sister, Mrs. Taylor, (Deanna Olds), discovers. In a charitable mood, Judson secretly contributes this counterfeit money to various worthy causes, including that of the aspiring mayor, Sam Jordan (Jim Fulford).

Two crooks, Fifty Ferris and Sawbuck Sam (Mary Gervase and Andy Kuehn) get wind of Judson's fifties and almost succeed in stealing them, but government agents Tom Crosby and Daisy (Dick Hoff and Bobbie Bruns) quickly arrest them and Judson.

Unless Judson can obtain the $207,000 necessary to make good all the phony bills now in circulation, he will be sent to Alcatraz. Things look bad for a time, but movie producer Kenneth Plunkett (Steve Croft) arrives on the scene and offers to pay that amount for the story rights; thus all ends happily.

The ingenue role of Judson's niece was played by Judy Fricke, and the parts of a neighbor boy and a gossiping townswoman were assumed by Jack Williams and Pat Hadley.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

ANNIE GET YOUR GUN

Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show was coming! Excitement reigned at Foster Wilson's (Dan Roth) boarding house in Cincinnati, Ohio. Frank Butler (Dave Klingel), the show's sharpshooter, challenged anyone to a shooting match. To his surprise he was taken on and beaten by a backwoods girl named Annie Oakley (Kathie Rhoads), who had fallen in love with him at first sight. Buffalo Bill (Lance Gauler) and Charlie Davenport (Ed Purple) talked Annie into joining their show. They went on the road, and Annie took her brothers and sisters (Skip Pierce, Deana Barton, and Myrna Eiserman) with her.

A romance between Annie and Frank blossomed as did one between Tommy (Paul Bowman) and Winne Tate (Pat Schultz), although Winnie's mother, Dolly (Nancy Katora), objected. Trouble started when Annie outshone Frank with a new trick, and he joined Pawnee Bill's (Aubrey Vaughan), a rival show.

Annie was adopted into the Sioux tribe as the daughter of Sitting Bull. The Wild West Show made a grand European tour, which was an artistic success, but which left it financially embarrassed. In an effort to keep the show going, the troop hoped to merge with Pawnee Bill's. Plans progressed well until each group learned that the other lacked funds as much as it did. All turned out well when Annie and Frank were reunited, and the shows were financed by the sale of Annie's medals.

Helping add color to the play were Mike Whelan (Mac), Bruce Montgomery (Conductor), Sara Offutt (Mrs. Sylvia Porter), and Louise Hentges (Mrs. Schuyler Adams).

So went the amusing LT version of "Annie Get Your Gun" as presented by the class of 1956 on October 15 and 16.

AFTER Mort's hearing about girls' gym and GAA activities, the sightseeing tour is concluded with a trip through the tunnel (a novel experience for Mort, who is used to digging his own holes) to see the trophy cases and the boys' gym. With Mort's dance on a basketball rim, we take leave of the two light-hearted companions who have introduced some of the sights of LT.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

The Varsity got off to a fine start this season by beating highly-rated Oak Park in a very close game.

The team's record of three wins and four losses in conference play was a bit disappointing in view of previous high-finishing teams, but the boys always did their best and provided a lot of excitement for the LT rooters.

There was good talent on the Varsity this year, and LT fans are very proud of Bill Caffey, Ed Miller, and Frank Caiazza, who were selected on the All-WSC first team.

FROSH-SOPH FOOTBALL

By finishing fourth in the WSC this year, the Frosh-Soph football team, under the leadership of Coaches Deason and Leiber, had what might be termed an "average" season. There were some fine individual stars on the team, though, who should help the varsity immensely next year. This was a good team to watch in action, and LT students are very proud of it.

CROSS COUNTRY

This year's cross country team turned in another fine record under Coach Max Armer's tutelage. The boys won the district championship, took second place in the conference, and finished ninth in the state. Of the seven team members who represented LT downstate, four were seniors and three were juniors. Joe White, Frank Miller, Jim O'Donnell, and Tom Hernandez will graduate in June, but Leonard Hall, Doug Hughes, and Bob Hunt will return next year to head a team which has very good prospects.

WRESTLING

The 1954-55 version of the LTHS mat team turned in a very impressive record. In facing many of the top teams in the state, the Armermen won 15 matches while losing only 3. In the win column La Grange chalked up a 24-21 victory over Thornton, a team which eventually won the state championship.

At the sectional tourney this year's team took third place and qualified the following five boys for the state meet: Don Woehrle, Franz Reisch, Ed Miller, Dave Kamerschen, and Bill Althen. Of this group, Don Woehrle was the only one to place in the meet. He received third place in his weight class for the second successive year.

The regular line-up for Coach Armer's team was as follows: 95 lbs.—Bob Meyer; 103 lbs.—Sid Fry; 112 lbs.—Dick Wakefield and Jim Gillen; 120 lbs.—Don Woehrle; 127 lbs.—Franz Reisch; 133 lbs.—Mickey Guzzardo; 138 lbs.—Bill Mitchell; 145 lbs.—Dave Sammons and Tom Jordan; 154 lbs.—Ed Miller; 165 lbs.—Dave Kamerschen; 175 lbs.—Bill Althen; Hyw.—Jim Heinz or Fred Blaess.

Next year's team will sorely miss the eight outstanding graduating letter-men. However, the vacancies can surely be filled by members of this year's fine Frosh-Soph team. Under the tutelage of Coach Bert Kraus, this team finished with a sparkling 16-2 record. Helping to make this so were such stand-outs as Mike Ferguson, Mike Williams, and Dick Soderberg. (By Bill Althen.)

VARSITY BASKETBALL

"I was especially pleased with the team's showing this year; frankly, I didn't expect them to do as well as they did, although after our good game against New Trier and the great last-half comeback against Argo in our second game, I knew I had a bunch of boys with real spirit playing." This was the observation of Les Glick, who, in his second year as head coach, deserves much of the credit for the team's fine performance. In looking ahead, he said, "The boys coming back next year improved exceptionally well this season, and I think we'll be tougher next year, although I won't go into a hole about that."

The Lions took a strong second in the West Suburban Conference, compiling a 10-4 record. Downers Grove was tough and came out ahead twice in hard-played games for the lead position, which Downers eventually won.

Bill Freisinger led the team in scoring, contributing 271 points and shooting 36.8% from the floor. Frank Caiazza followed with 215 points and a good 43% shooting pace, while Lee Meyer, Rich Merz, and J. B. Wallace put in 160, 156, and 127 points respectively. Bob Arnold, Chuck Bauer, Fred Liedtke, Yates Keir, Jerry Olson, and Roger Smith completed a team that our school can be proud of and that "really gave it all they could in the games," according to Coach Glick.

The season was marked by rather balanced scoring, exemplified by Caiazza, Freisinger, Arnold, Wallace, Merz, Meyer, and Liedtke, each of whom led the Lions in scoring at least once, with Freisinger having two 30-point nights. The team collectively scored 1358 points for the 21 games, amounting to 64.7 points a game. The second York game saw J. B. Wallace shifted to guard position, with Lee Meyer moving up to the vacated forward spot. This arrangement provided valuable scoring power.

In the first regional game, Argo was overwhelmingly defeated 94-75, partly because of Freisinger's scoring spree of 27 points. However, Downers Grove ended our tournament hopes by a decisive 91-68 defeat in which Meyer and Freisinger each tallied 16 points, while the scoring combination of Ron Baukol and Larry Wyllie made 25 and 22 points respectively for Downers.

FROSH-SOPH BASKETBALL

With a 16-3 record, the frosh-soph cagers did well for the second straight year under Coach Sandusky's command. Placing behind Glenbard in a tie for second in the conference with Arlington Heights, the team compiled an 11-3 conference record and won all of its outside games, beating New Trier, Argo, Thornton, Morton, and Oak Park, all respected names in their leagues.

Simmie Pearson and Jim Latimore were the high scorers, totaling 189 and 178 points respectively. Pearson, the regular center, shot a fine 46% of his field goal tries, while forward Latimore hit for a creditable 42%. Ken Markley scored 143 points; Bill Belohlavek, 136; Dennis Crowell, 117; Harold Stepinsky, 112; and Jay Stampen, 35. Larry Moore with 20 helped out later in the season.

In discussing the highlights of the year, Mr. Sandusky commented, "That game over at Oak Park was a nice one to win, and we just couldn't do anything wrong in the second Hinsdale game.

"We should be a little faster next year, and maybe better. Some good boys are coming up (freshman team was undefeated), but there are good boys leaving, too. Pearson may move up to varsity. All in all, I would say we had a good year."

CHEERLEADERS

This year's peppy and talented cheerleaders have really livened up the school spirit by working side by side with the Student Council's School Spirit Committee. Under Miss Farr's helpful sponsorship and Nancy Redpath's captaincy, they have worked as a capable cheer-rousing group. This year the cheerleaders attended the convention held at Maine Township High School, where they learned how other schools' cheerleaders organized and worked.

In order to receive cheerleading letters, the girls have to meet the requirements for regular attendance at practice and at games.

VARSITY TRACK

At the beginning of the 1955 track season, Coach Deason found himself faced with the problem of replacing the many fine athletes who had brought the state title to LT and who had now graduated. A great deal depended on the juniors who had come up from the Frosh-Soph squad. After making a fair showing in indoor dual meets, the Lions closed the indoor season by placing second in the Naperville Relays (without capturing a single first place in any event) and fourteenth in the Oak Park Relays.

With the opening of the outdoor season, the Lions look forward to improvement. The broad-jumping chores were handled by Sam Gervase and Chuck Bauer, both of whom have gone twenty feet or better. Bob Arnold seems to be the top shot putter, while Jim Braden and Frank Caiazza throw the discus. Ken Markley, a sophomore, is soaring around eleven feet in the pole vault and looks like a good prospect. Dave Sammons, Dick Ryan, and Jerry Olson handle the high-jumping tasks.

The dashes will be run by Bill Caffey, Jim Fulford, Ed Gould, Dan McGowan, and Sam Gervase. Two juniors, Larry Bankhart and Dave McConnell, have moved up to varsity and are holding down the hurdle events. Bob Seger, McGowan, and Fulford will probably be the quarter-milers. The half-mile event has depth this year, with Jim Trippel, Hank McKinney, Joe White, and Doug Hughes. White and Bob Hunt run the mile.

Things look pretty rough as far as the state title goes, but when the team is LT, and the coach is Deason, anything can happen.

FROSH-SOPH TRACK

This year's frosh-soph team was good—as usual. Although many men from last year's team moved up to varsity, the sophomores are ably filling in. To supplement them, Coach Armer has some very promising freshmen.

At the first frosh-soph meet of the year, the Naperville Relays, the Cubs captured third place, with Bloom winning and York taking second. The Cubs won the freshman four-lap relay, the sophomore eight-lap relay, and the broad jump.

With just this one meet under the team's belt at this time, it looks as though the pole vaulting will be done by Dixon, Middour, and Latimore; the high jump by Pearson; the weight events by Freeman; and the broad-jump by Breytspaak. The dashes will be handled by Edwards; the hurdles by Kotska; and the 880 by Brewer. Added to these individuals are a couple of good relay teams.

If the frosh-soph group keeps improving, by the time the conference meet rolls around Coach Armer and his team could be in a position to add another conference crown to their already large collection.

BASEBALL

The LT varsity nine faced tough competition this year, especially from Downers Grove, which had many of last year's team returning. Nevertheless, Coach Grant Cummings, who replaced Coach Glick, expected a good season.

The LT lineup saw either Bowman or Krask at first, while Merz handled second. Freisinger and Stimac played third and short respectively, and the catching assignment rotated between Meyer and Wormley. The likely outfield was DePasse, Hughes, and Shields, with support from Salzgeber. The pitching was handled by Wormley and Meyer, along with Hughes and Bach.

Coach Cummings was building the team for next year by using many capable juniors.

TENNIS

Coach Frank Allen's varsity tennis team has many fine players this year. The outstanding singles' player is Gay Messick, while the doubles spot boasts two top combinations: Dick Hoff and Bob Dutton; Derk Simonsen and Jerry McGreer. Skip Pierce and Dick Hughes in singles provide excellent support for the team along with juniors Mack Richey, Pete Kiep, Leonard Newcomb, and Dick Vaughan. The seniors whose talents are a great help to the Lion cause are Al Miller, Jim Elliott, and Joe Mac Rae.

In the first three matches of the season, the LT netters lost to Evanston, tied with Joliet, and defeated Blue Island. The schedule ahead is a tough one, but the boys can be counted on to give good performances. The Frosh-Soph group, too, looks promising.

GOLF

With no one individual star but a good, well-balanced team, Coach John Payne hoped to improve last year's third place standing. The mainstays of this year's squad were Paul Brinkman, Dick Bush, Grant Dostert, John Hilderbrand, Bruce Milligan, and Gerry Jager. Assistants from the underclassmen included John Gary, Mike Fleming, Yates Williams, and Louis Balayte.

Toughest competition in the conference was expected to come from Glenbard and Arlington Heights. Pre-season predictions had these two teams and LT fighting it out for top honors. With underclassmen showing good form, Coach Payne looks optimistically ahead.

GAA

GAA resumed its customary heavy schedule last fall with an all-time membership high of nearly half the girls at LT. Two outstanding events opened the season: a play day for freshmen and new students and "Look to the Future," a meeting outlining the GAA agenda. A special occurence during the year was the shooting of a colored movie featuring GAA's many activities.

In school affairs, GAA won third place in the Homecoming parade with its clever pincushion float, sold balloons at the "Parade of Melodies," gave a Christmas tea, and sponsored a dance, "March Mix-up."

The presentation of awards and the introduction of next year's officers at the annual Mother-Daughter banquet concluded a busy year.
